Mónica Paz

June 2 - 4, 2017

Studio Roma
1508 Roma NW, 87104
Corner of 15th Street and Roma NW

(Important to attend the opening workshop to understand the remaining classes.
All levels welcome!)

Technique for All:
Get the most of your dance by improving your technique.

Friday

7:30pm to 9:00pm

As a follower, become a dancer who follows and not just a follower.
As a leader, make your lead more clear and efficient.

Musicality Everywhere: Four Workshops

In these workshops, the challenge is to achieve how to express the music in every single moment. Open to experienced dancers only. Beginners must have attended Friday workshop.

Saturday

1:00pm to 2:30pm

A "simple" movement is turned into a sophisticated one.

3:00pm to 4:30pm

Dissociation is not only a skill, but also a tool that opens up many different possibilities.

8:00pm to Midnight - Milonga with DJ Michelle McRuiz

1512 1st Street NW, 87102

Sunday

1:00pm to 2:30pm

Surprise yourself making the same familiar step feel and look completely different.

2:30pm-3:00pm Break

3:00pm to 4:30pm

The mechanics of the step is now history: it is time for interpreting!

Tango philosophy: After more than 20 years dancing and learning with milongueros in Buenos Aires, Monica teaches tango contemplating Tango as a culture and tradition. She considers to Milongueros as a nexus between Tango in the Golden Age and nowadays. For Milongueros and for her, Tango is more than a fashionable dance.

If you are looking for deep knowledge of tango to improve your connection with the partner and music and smoothness and elegance in your dance, you shouldn't miss her classes.

Pricing:

Full Weekend - all 5 classes + Milonga
$120 per person, $150 per couple

Private Lessons:

$100 for one, $270 for three.
